

Your cancellation rights under the Regulations

Right to cancel

You have the right to cancel your contract within 14 days without giving any reason. The cancellation period will expire after 14 days from the day that is either:

- a. in the case of a service contract, the day on which the contract is concluded in accordance with the contract terms; or
- b. in the case of a sales contract, the day on which you acquire, or a third party other than the carrier and indicated by you acquires, physical possession of the goods.

If you reject any equipment, you will still be bound by any underlying service contract unless you cancel that contract as well.

If you exercise your right to cancel a material bundle or any other services you are taking from us.

To exercise this right to cancel, you must inform us (by contacting us at our address on the previous page, or by calling, emailing or faxing us) of your decision to cancel the contract by a clear statement (e.g. a letter sent by post, email or fax). You may use the attached model cancellation form, but it is not obligatory. To meet the cancellation deadline, it is sufficient for you to send your communication concerning your exercise of the right to cancel before the cancellation period has expired.

Effects of cancellation

If you cancel your contract, we will reimburse to you all payments received from you, including the costs of delivery if any (except for the supplementary cost arising if you chose a type of delivery other than the least expensive type of standard delivery offered by us).

We may make a deduction from the reimbursement for loss in value of any goods supplied, if the loss is the result of unnecessary handling by you.

We will make the reimbursement without undue delay, and not later than:

- a. 14 days after the day we receive back from you any goods supplied, or

- b. (if earlier) 14 days after the day you provide evidence that you have returned the goods, or
- c. if there were no goods supplied, 14 days after the day on which we are informed about your decision to cancel the contract.

We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of the reimbursement.

If you have received goods in connection with the contract:

- a. You must send back the goods or hand them over to us without undue delay and in any event not later than 14 days from the day on which you communicate your cancellation of your contract to us. The deadline is met if you send back the goods before the period of 14 days has expired.
- b. You are only liable for any diminished value of the goods resulting from the handling other than what is necessary to establish the nature, characteristics and functioning of the goods.

For service contracts, if you have requested to begin the performance of services during the cancellation period, you shall pay us an amount which is in proportion to what has been performed until you have communicated to us your cancellation of your contract, in comparison with the full coverage of the contract.

You will have to bear the direct cost of returning the goods.
